

Questions & Answers

Skal: EKO-Label - Restricted Substances Overview

Question:

I am looking at the IFOAM standards and they quote metals in dyes limits as being from the " ETAD agreement". The only specific information I have been able to get from ETAD is some general information on the DyeCare program which is a product stewardship program rather than a eco-label type program.

Do you know the source of the original information concerning this ETAD agreement ?

Answer:

Please login to read more...

This section of ECO-TRACK is only fully available to ECO-TRACK members. Login here to view the entire answer:

Username:

Password: Remember Me Forgotten password?

Not yet a member? See why subscribe. For sales please contact us.

Estimated Completion Date: 25 February 2003

Actual Completion Date: 25 February 2003

EIATRACK publishes questions from subscribers in their original form, other than removing company or product names for purposes of anonymity.

Ask a Question 